Dear Members

Urgent Application: RAF v Legal Practice Council and Various Others – Case NR 134420

We act herein on behalf of the Road Accident Fund.

We direct this email to you as executive committee members of the Pretoria Attorneys Association and the Johannesburg Attorneys Association dealing with RAF matters. We herewith present for electronic service, under the provisions of Rule 6(12) pertaining to urgent applications, the RAF's urgent application for a 180-day payment reprieve. The Pretoria High Court granted an order for substituted service and the attached papers will be published in newspapers and on various platforms. We have requested both the LPC and the LSSA to distribute the papers through their communication channels. It will be appreciated if your organizations will distribute it to your members as well. The matter has been referred to the Deputy Judge President for allocation of an urgent court hearing date.
