Dear Members

The Gauteng Attorneys' Association's participation as Amicus Curiae in Legal Sector Code case

The Gauteng Attorneys Association (GAA) extends its gratitude to all members who participated in the recent poll regarding our involvement as amicus curiae in the matter brought by Norton Rose Fulbright South Africa Inc (NRF) against the Minister of Trade, Industry and Competition, the South African Legal Practice Council, and the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development.

We are pleased to inform you that the majority of respondents have expressed their support for the GAA to join this case as amicus curiae. This decision reflects our collective commitment to meaningful transformation in the legal profession while addressing concerns about the viability and potential negative impacts of the current Legal Sector Code.
