NOTE:

1. The attached roll reflects all matters on the opposed motion roll commencing on 31 October 2022, allocated to Opperman J.

3. Notices of removal can be mailed to the above email addresses. Kindly also advise Judge Opperman's registrar should a matter not be proceeding once it becomes known.

5. Your attention is directed to Part A of Directive 2 of 2022 which became operative on 18 July 2022. In terms of paragraph 14, all opposed motions may be heard either in physical court or by video link by agreement among the parties. The parties are to indicate their agreement in this regard. Insofar as the parties are unable to agree on a mode of hearing the Judge has requested that the parties indicate their preference and motivate their reasonable needs for wanting the mode of hearing indicated (paragraph 16 lists some of the considerations). This will enable the Judge to exercise a discretion as to what mode is appropriate.
