The Booysens Magistrates Court situated at Erf 203, Amanda Avenue and Riffle Road, Oakdene will be opening on the 1st March 2019 as a branch court of Johannesburg.

Magistrate PA Koen will be moving to that court as the Head of Office and Mrs M Lamprecht will be the section civil head running the judiciary in Johannesburg Magistrates Court.

The court will be a branch court for criminal, family and civil matters, excluding Regional Civil matters, until such time that it becomes a fully fledged court.

In civil proceedings, practitioners will have the choice of issuing processes out of either Johannesburg Magistrates Court or Booysens Magistrates Court.

The police stations situated in Moffat View, Booysens and Mondeor will be forwarding their criminal matters to the Booysens Court

The Small Claims Court will remain in Johannesburg Magistrates Court.

Pleadings are to refer to the court as follows: “In the District of Johannesburg Central Held at Booysens”.
