2. Kindly please take note that on Wednesday, the 23rd day of August 2023, the Bench will be hearing two (2) Appeal matters. Invariably, depending on the extent of engagement with the bench, parties tend to spend more time in oral argument than envisaged. For this reason, we have decided to limit time for oral arguments as set out below to make provision for any of the parties exceeding their allocated time due to extensive engagement with the bench.

3. Counsel in each individual matter are requested to apportion time amongst themselves accordingly in accordance with the time allocations given.
