COURT-CRAFT ESSENTIALS

For candidate and junior attorneys

Adv. Nerisha Naidoo

Advocate Nerisha Naidoo is currently a practising advocate with the Johannesburg Society of Advocates. She prosecuted as a State Advocate and a Senior State Advocate in the Magistrates' Courts, High Court and Supreme Court of Appeal during her 18 ½ year tenure at the National Prosecuting Authority. Advocate Naidoo commenced her legal career as an attorney in general practice.

Advocate Naidoo was very instrumental in the union activities of the Public Service Association where she also served as Regional Chairperson for several years. She served on several transformation committees including Equity and Disciplinary Committees at the NPA. Advocate Naidoo has prosecuted disciplinary hearings on behalf of the State.

Being a life coach and a mentor, she has a passion for family law and related matters, including deceased estates and alternative dispute resolution platforms.
