JAA UPDATE 26 May 2017

Dear Members

CIPC opinion on Section 73(5)(d)&(e) of the Companies Act that covers deciding votes in board meetings

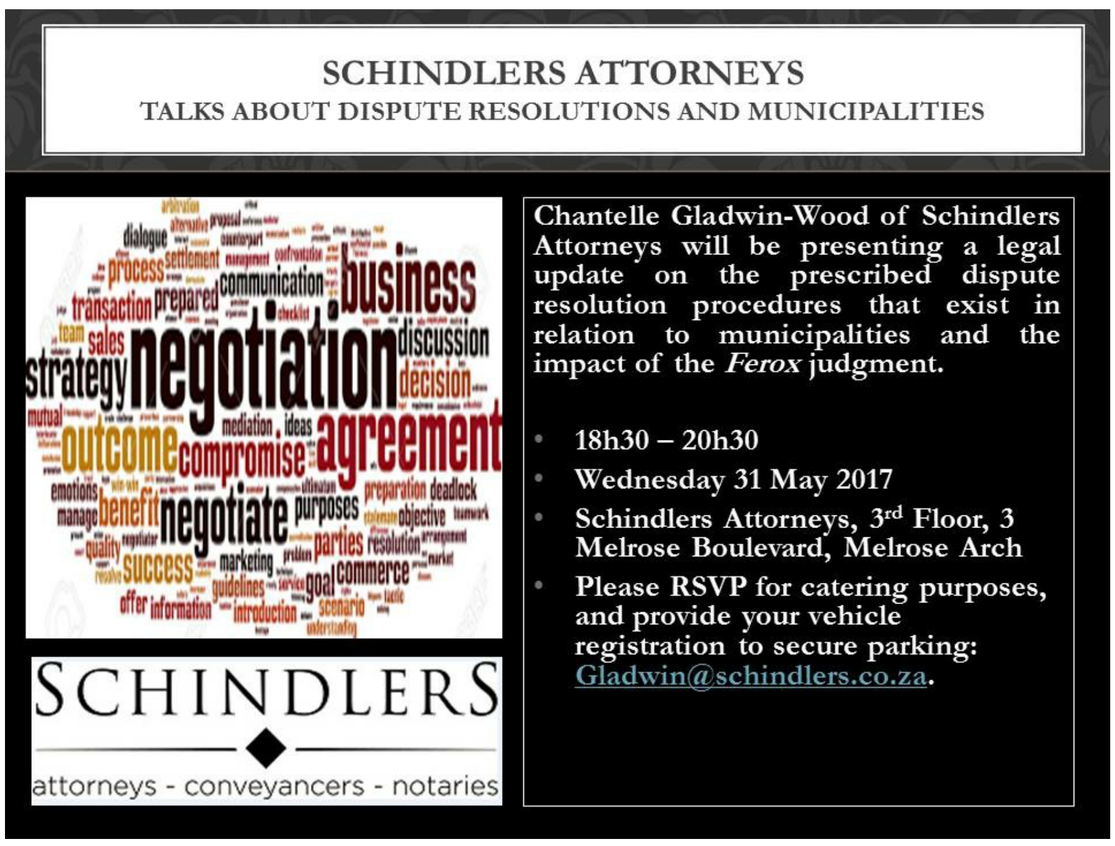
The CIPC has published a non-binding legal opinion interpreting the implication of Section 73(5)(d) & (e) of the Companies Act, 2008. The CIPC advises that a company's Memorandum of Incorporation (MOI) can provide for provisions with regards to the voting at board meetings, because this section of the Act is applicable unless the MOI provides otherwise. Click here. for a copy of the legal opinion.

The latest Government Gazette details the amendment of regulations to the Sectional Titles Act, and the Deeds Registries Act

Click here for a copy of the Government Gazette.

Legal Update: Dispute Resolutions and Municipalities

On 31 May, Schindlers Attorneys will be presenting a legal update on the prescribed dispute resolution procedures that exist in relation to municipalities and the impact of the Ferox Judgment. Click here here to access a PDF of the invitation.



Legal Update: Executing against immovables

On 7 June, Schindlers Attorneys will be hosting a legal update on the process of executing against immovable property. Click here to access a PDF of the invitation.
here to access a PDF of the invitation.

