3. It is peremptory in all matters (opposed and unopposed) that a practice note and heads of argument shall be served and filed on the electronic file on the caselines platform only, and shall not be sent to the judge's secretary.

4. Applications heard during normal court hours shall be adjudicated by means of an oral hearing in open court. Applications heard outside ordinary court hours will be heard either on a virtual platform or oral hearing in open court, as arranged. The default position may change in the event of unforeseen circumstances arising, and such change will be timeously communicated to all parties.

6. Failure to comply with the aforementioned will be deemed to be an indication that there is no appearance for the party concerned and may result in the application being summarily struck off the roll or dealt with in the absence of such defaulting party.
