Letter of condolence

As the President of the Law Society of South Africa, I offer my sincerest condolences on the untimely death of JAA Executive Committee member Jacques Tarica.

Jacques was a long-serving member on various committees of the Law Society of South Africa, and I served on several committees with him.
He was a committed member and a tireless worker for the Attorneys profession. In addition, I remember his keen legal mind and a gentle, humble and loving soul who invested so much of his time in the legal fraternity.

He is fondly remembered for his great sense of humour and his contribution to the profession and

We are sad for the massive loss on the legal profession and are also thankful for having known Jacques.

Please extend our condolences to his wife Anthea and sons Gregory and Michael and thank his family for allowing him to contribute significantly to our profession.

Yours faithfully

Mr J C Janse van Rensburg
