Candidate Attorney Ambassadress Alisha Naik attends the Court-Craft essentials course

Our Candidate attorney Alisha Naik attended the JAA and SABWiL Court-Craft Essentials course on the 7th of August 2021 and shares her experience below:

"The session on court-craft essentials hosted by SABWiL was worth every minute of a candidate attorneys time. The topics covered were congruent to many issued faced as a candidate attorney or junior attorney starting out in the field, from court etiquette to the ascertaining what is in the best interest of the client, to the general respect that the profession commands. The panellists were exceptionally knowledgeable and entertaining, exciting us as juniors and keeping us engaged.

With a combined experience of almost 40 + years, the panellists spoke with such passion and conviction in unlocking some of the professions best kept secrets. The webinar was crafted in such a manner that it honoured and commemorated Women's Month, with an all-female panel of speakers. I certainly look forward to attending the next session." – Alisha Naik, JAA Candidate Attorney Ambassadress.
