THE JOHANNESBURG ATTORNEYS' ASSOCIATION

Dear Members

JAA Annual General Meeting – Save the date

The JAA will host our Annual General Meeting on the 14th of September 2023. Members can RSVP to viv@jaa.org.za to attend.

Crisis at the RAF – Joint Memorandum by the Legal Profession

The organised Legal Profession of South Africa hereby presents the urgent memorandum to the CEO of the Road Accident Fund (RAF), the Minister of Transport, the Minister of Justice and Correctional Services and other decision makers responsible for the execution of the statutory mandate given to the Road Accident Fund in terms of the Road Accident Fund Act.

JAA High Court Tour

The JAA hosted another successful Candidate Attorneys Tour. The attendees met the registrar and gained helpful insight into how the court functions. Attendees enjoyed a light lunch and the chance to socialise with peers before bringing up the day to a close.

Johannesburg High Court – Organisation of the roll and lead times

The following information is published to the Profession to inform litigation lawyers about the state of the court roll at the Johannesburg High Court.

Help at High Court with the JAA

The JAA is busy compiling a list of outstanding dates in the High Court - there are many complaints of dates not being allocated and we need concrete examples so that we can take this up urgently.

If you are having an issue getting a date please send me an e-mail to info@aricumlaw.co.za with the following information:

1. Case number
2. Date that you applied for a date
3. Which roll you're applying for a date on
4. Date that you escalated in terms of the directives, and to which email address
5. Any other escalation steps that you've taken.

6th Edition of AI Expo Africa

We are delighted to announce that the JAA will be a partner to the upcoming 6th Edition of AI Expo Africa. ## GAA/JAA Courtonline systematic errors survey

The JAA has been working with the Court Online technical team in providing feedback on issues faced by users on the system.

You may notice a difference in performance on the system today.

This is the first step towards a more functional Court Online.

Please continue to report errors and issues with Court Online on our error reporting link.
