JAA Annual fees and Candidate attorney fees

We are approaching our new financial year and would like to thank all our members for their support over the last 12 months. Your membership fees make the JAA possible. We are not increasing our fees and they will remain unchanged at R920 including VAT per annum. Please effect payment by the end of July.

For our candidates who have yet to complete their articles – as previously advertised, we will be charging a minimal fee of R120 including VAT for the same period. Invoices will be sent out in June and should be settled by the end of July. If you do not want to pay the fees, please rather resign via return mail of such. If you have qualified, please let us know so we may load you as a full member and update your membership details according to your revised information.

JAA launches magistrate courts whatsapp group

Call of interest for trainees - employability for youth and women in South Africa (EYWA) project

The EYWA project focuses on strengthening the capacity of national and local civil society organizations in South Africa, in particular women and youth organizations, to engage in gender equality and the inclusion of young people in the labor market. The project aims to improve the employability and economic conditions of young people and women from disadvantaged areas in the Gauteng province of Johannesburg. In this respect EYWA aims to:

a) Support entrepreneurship initiatives founded by women and young people.

b) Build the capacity of women and youth networks and encourage their participation in policy dialogues, strengthening public-private partnerships (PPPs) on the socioeconomic situation and economic inclusion of women and youth.

c) Support actions aimed at preventing gender-based violence.

Kindly find the application form attached.
