To whom it may concern

Dear Sir/Madam

Re: The hearing of Civil Trials allocated to Acting Judge Strydom during the week of 06 to 10 July 2020.

As you may be aware the hearing of civil trials are currently being conducted online in an attempt to curb the spread of the Covid-19 pandemic.

This situation does present certain challenges from an administrative standpoint especially as the court does not get presented with a court file containing all the relevant contact details of practitioners, as it would be in the ordinary course. The full implementation of the Caselines system has to a certain extent remedied the situation. There is however still a meaningful delay before parties can be contacted and online proceedings initiated.

To enable the speedy resolution of matters, parties are accordingly instructed to contact me directly via e-mail (at william.prinsloo@live.com) as soon as they become aware that their matter has been allocated to Acting Judge Strydom.

Your cooperation in this regard will be highly appreciated.

Regards

William Prinsloo
