MEDIA ALERT

CITY OF TSHWANE TO RESUME LAND DEVELOPMENT AND REZONING APPLICATIONS, AND BUILDING INSPECTION NOTICES

5 JULY 2020

The City of Tshwane is pleased to announce the return of personnel and the reopening of the Economic Development and Spatial Planning Department offices with effect from Wednesday, 8 July 2020, after the COVID-19 Tactical Committee declared the buildings safe and ready to resume operations.

The following services will be available to the City's customers:

- Electronic submission (via email) of new land development applications (rezoning and township establishment)
- Processing of all land development applications
- Information counters for the collection of zoning certificates
- Submission and collection of building plans
- Building inspections and issuing of contravention notices
- Informal and formal businesses permits and licence applications

The following ten offices and/or buildings were assessed, analysed and declared ready to resume operations:
