PRACTICAL RENTAL COLLECTION DURING COVID-19

The webinar is a platform for legal practitioners, property investors and landlords.

ProBono.Org, in collaboration with TPN, invites you to participate in a legal training webinar to be conducted via Zoom.
The webinar will focus on:

- COVID-19: what remedies are available to you?
- Legislation and the important sections
- Critical clauses in lease agreements
- How to improve rental collections
- Latest amendments to legislation
- Evictions; and
- Can a tenant move into or vacate premises during Alert Level 4?

Date: Friday 15 May 2020
Time: 11:00 – 12:30 (a question and answer session will follow the presentation)

Facilitator: Peter Mennen
peter@tpn.co.za

Peter Mennen

Peter Mennen is the Head of Legal of TPN Credit Bureau. He has specialised in Rental property Law for 10 years. Prior to assuming his role at TPN, Peter was a Director of a niche Eviction Law Firm in Johannesburg. During his time in practice he focused on evictions and rental claims for REITs.

TPN Credit Bureau
TPN is South Africa's largest credit bureau specialising in tenant behaviour and has formed close relationships with global credit bureaux, TransUnion & Experian to further enhance the vetting of tenants. Our biggest contribution to the property industry has undoubtedly been the creation of a rental payment profile, another global first!

(The Zoom link and password will be sent to registered participants via email)

Please RSVP by 12:00 on 14 May 2020 to mpho@probono.org.za

INVITATION
DIALOGUE 2

ProBono.Org cordially invites legal practitioners to participate in the second session of our series of short dialogues to be conducted via Zoom.

These dialogues create a platform for recently admitted and young legal practitioners to engage with each other and with more experienced colleagues in a series of dialogues spread over the year.

The second dialogue will deal with Legal Practitioners' essential services to be rendered on COVID-19 Level 4 in Family Magistrates' Courts. Amongst others, the presenter will discuss:

1. How legal practitioners should go about submitting Form 2 of Annexure A in terms of Reg 4(2), 16(2)(b) and 28(4), under the Directions issued by the Minister of Justice

2. Which documents to present to identify oneself;

3. Table 1 Alert Level 4 of GG 43258 – H(9), O(5);

4. Several regulations issued in terms of s27(2) of the Disaster Management Act, 57 of 2002; directives and guidelines issued by the courts and the LPC pertaining to Level 4 as from 1 May 2020.
